Thursday, March 27, 1969, the faculty honored Miss Maeta Wentz at a party in Central's library. Her secretarial services at Central since 1947 have meant a great deal to Central's well-being. Her assistance (twenty-two years with Central, forty-two total with St. Louis Board of Education) will be missed by all.

Centralites attending the book fair.

Student Council member, Sam Dunlap, argues his point,

Miss Woods, the sponsor, of the student council.

Student Council

Centralites who are concerned with the activities of their school join in the work of their Student Council. The Student Council representatives themselves are elected at the beginning of the school year by the school, one representative and alternate from each advisory. To be nominated as a representative a person must have good attendance, scholastic achievement, and citizenship. The Student Council conducts a Cake Walk for fund raising, collection of a Christmas Fund for the elderly, Sock Hop Dance for collecting can food for needy at Thanksgiving, Student Council Store for Centralites and other diversified activities throughout the year. The Student Council officers are elected by the entire school body:

Dr. Phillips, Mrs. Diamond and Mr. Jennings discuss audio-visual machines.

The library and the audio-visual have been combined this year to establish the IMC Instructional Materials Center. To accompany the library, as well as the audio-visual, a wall was knocked out to add an additional room for book storage.

The stack room is used for old newspapers, and any material that isn't used for reference.

Stacking books is one of the everyday jobs of librarian workers.

The bulletin board can also be used for reference.

Each year the library club sponsors a Christmas party. All faculty are invited and sweets are served. There is also an exchange of gifts between library members.

The Co-C-Hi girls do various kinds of work for the teachers and in return they receive points. To receive awards the girls must have accumulated a certain amount of points.

Each year the Co-C-Hi sponsors a valentines dance entitled the Kind of Hearts Ball. Several young men are chosen by the Co-C-Hi to run for the kingship. From among the Co-C-Hi girls that have been in the club at least a year and are members in good standing, escorts for the kingship elect are chosen.
